Great location with 180-degree ocean views from the Port to Elliott Heads, all the agricultural land below it is just magnificent. Positioned centrally between Bundaberg and Bargara Beach with the most amazing views over the Ocean to the Horizon, this cleverly designed 2 storey plus home is an entertainers delight and takes advantage of the easterly breezes so no need for air conditioners. The amazing house is also protected from the cold westerly breezes of wintertime and the hot afternoon sun.

Built on 1993 the home offers 4 bedrooms with the master on the second storey having a good-sized walk-in robe and ensuite plus an office/bedroom 2 or baby's room. Walk down the 2 stairs and into the open plan living areas and be amazed at the views, sit on one of the many balconies, enjoy and soak in the atmosphere the Ocean views provide. Yes, even washing up you have views, ample space and this area is the entertainers haven opening onto the extended decks for additional outdoor dining. You will be the envy of many boasting the view and fresh sea breezes whilst enjoying the casual BBQ with extended family and friends.

The open plan lounge/formal dining and dining area has features of extra high dome ceilings. The next level section offers the 3 built in bedrooms, bathroom and their own deck area. The home has the most peaceful backyard space to enjoy the gazebo down the bottom, decked inside areas that provides ample room for further entertaining.

Drive into the remote controller 2 bay garage than let it start or park in the parking area and go through the front door.

Close to Bargara Beach, shopping and schools, pubs, clubs and entertainment.
